

Memoir Writing Classes

with Edith Glass

Sundays, October 18 and November 22
2:00 - 4:00pm

(Classes will resume in January)

Share your life's experiences with future generations.

Come to one or come to all! Please be prepared to read a "snapshot" experience (one-page description) of a significant event/person in your life.

If your life experiences are not recorded for your descendants, they will be lost forever. This course will help participants record the significant events in their lives. Classes are primarily devoted to sharing personal stories and are conducted in a "non-critical" environment.
