

PARTICIPATING LIBRARIES

#checkusallout
bit.ly/checkusallout

CHECK US ALL OUT CHALLENGE

April 3 - May 3

Bethel Public Library

189 Greenwood Avenue, Bethel
203-794-8756
bethellibrary.org

New Fairfield Public Library

2 Brush Hill Road, New Fairfield
203-312-5679
newfairfieldlibrary.org

C.H. Booth Library

25 Main Street, Newtown
203-426-4533
chboothlibrary.org

New Milford Public Library*

ALL CLUES ONLINE
24 Main Street, New Milford
860-355-1191
newmilfordlibrary.org

Danbury Public Library

170 Main Street, Danbury
203-797-4505
danburylibrary.org

Ridgefield Library

472 Main Street, Ridgefield
203-438-2282
ridgefieldlibrary.org

Mark Twain Library

439 Redding Road, Redding
203-938-2545
marktwainlibrary.org

Sherman Library

1 Sherman Center, Sherman
860-354-2455
shermanlibrary.org

SUBMIT THE FINAL ANSWER

NAME _____ PHONE _____

EMAIL _____ HOME LIBRARY _____

Submit your answer online at bit.ly/checkusallout or drop off this completed puzzle to your nearest participating library!

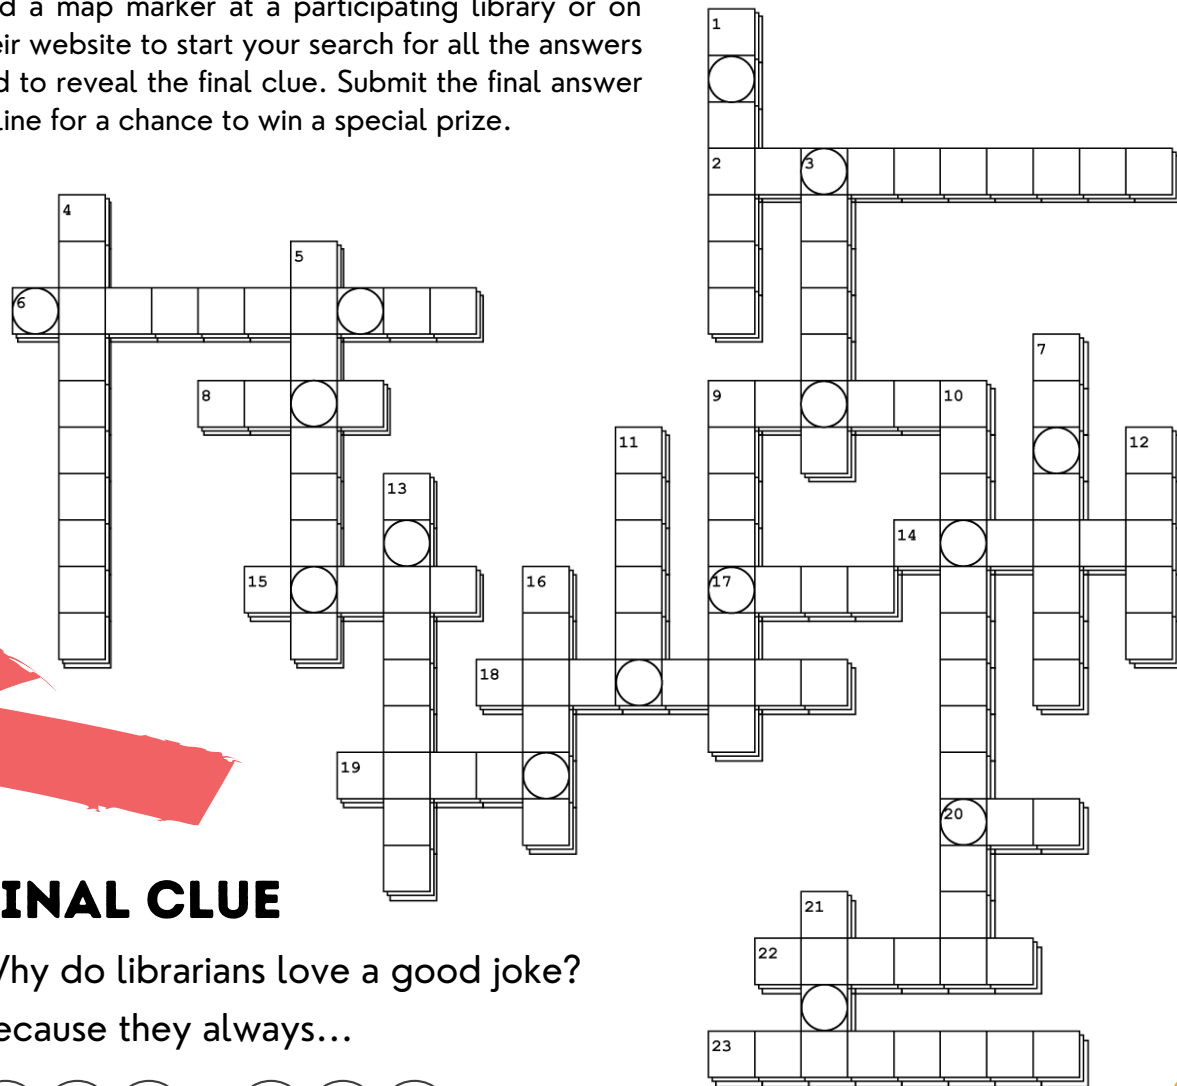

bit.ly/checkusallout

COMPLETE THE CROSSWORD

Your library card grants you access to all of Connecticut's libraries. Complete the crossword to learn about some of the unique features of your neighboring libraries!

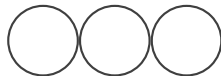

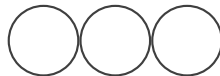

Find a map marker at a participating library or on their website to start your search for all the answers and to reveal the final clue. Submit the final answer online for a chance to win a special prize.

FINAL CLUE

Why do librarians love a good joke?

Because they always...

Bethel Public Library

9 Across. What famous showman, whose collection of memorabilia the Bethel Library displays, was born in Bethel?

14 Across. The Friends group runs this little bookshop in the basement of the Library.

13 Down. You'll find this fun activity around the building, it is supported by the Friends Group.

C.H. Booth Library

8 Across. Start some new plants using items from our _____ library.

7 Down. Bring your creations to life using our new _____ 3D printer.

22 Across. Stop by the YA Department for some video and board _____ fun.

Danbury Public Library

5 Down. _____ kits help small children reach developmental benchmarks.

17 Across. This many people can sit in the Library Technology Center pod.

18 Across. Model of the microphone in Audio Studio 170.

Mark Twain Library

9 Down. This important fundraiser takes place every year over Labor Day weekend.

19 Across. Who was Mark Twain's biographer? He was a Redding Resident.

20 Across. The Mark Twain Library is open _____ evenings per week.

New Fairfield Public Library

4 Down. Along with video games, you can check out this game system at the children's desk.

6 Across. _____ society is located in the lower level of the library and displays unique town objects.

11 Down. Find our _____ corner in the adult library, where you can add a piece or two or even take a whole one home!

New Milford Public Library*

Building closed - all clue answers online.

2 Across. What food is the subject of the library program on April 28 about?

10 Down. The library is undergoing a major _____.

15 Across. The New Milford Public Library was originally known as the _____ Library.

Ridgefield Library

3 Down. Renovare la Terra is on exhibit in this Library space.

16 Down. Sit under a red umbrella on the _____ Terrace.

23 Across. Come by and create in the Steam Corner in the _____ Family Technology Center.

Sherman Library

1 Down. The story of our library's founders, the _____, can be found in the oldest part of the library.

12 Down. Find our Peter Rabbit _____ in the room where our youngest patrons play.

21 Down. Big and red and a nice airy space, the _____ is where many of our programs may take place.