

Danbury Library Study Pod Use

Study Pods, generously funded by the FRIENDS of the Danbury Library, are available for reservation by patrons for studying, small meetings, and interviews.

- Study pods are available for use during normal library operating hours.
- Reservations may be made through the library's website or with the assistance of library staff in 1-hour blocks with a maximum of two appointments per day.
- Time extensions may be provided at the discretion of library staff if no other appointments take precedence.
- Parent/caregiver supervision is required for age 12 and younger.
- Food and drinks are prohibited.
- For four-person pods, a wireless keyboard, mouse, and monitor remote are available upon request.
